~~~~~This residential parcel is situated in the picturesque village of Dierona, a 20-minute drive from the Germasogeia Roundabout in Limassol. The road to Dierona was recently reconstructed, so access to the town is now significantly faster. This residential plot has 25% Coverage 45% Density We recently hired a topographer to define the property's borders, and he informed us that the actual size is 600 sq m, contrary to the old information, which stated 372 sq m. The road is 5-6 meters from a registered road, and the neighbour is willing to give access. There is water, but there isn't yet electricity. However, it is a residential area so that it will be electrified sooner or lat...
