"Located on the foothills of the Troodos mountains of Limassol District, at an altitude of 430 meters. Apeshia is a picturesque village that coexist for centuries. Traditional elements coexist with modern, where on one side you see the small traditional stone-built houses and on the other side newly build residences. It is a developing area, and as people spread away from the hustle and crazy city lifestyle, it is an opportunity for a great investment. Both plots are almost the same size, some hundred meters in difference. One plot is 18,365 square meters long, and the other plot is 18,646 square meters. Building density for both is 15% and 10% cover factor."...
