Our property lies on the outskirts of the quaint and traditional village of Neo Chorio, known as the gateway to the Akamas National Park. The park is a protected area of about 230 square kilometres containing valleys, gorges and wide sandy bays, great for exploring. It's a few minutes walk into the village with its small collection of shops and traditional tavernas. Various sandy beaches are a within a few minutes drive. The pretty harbour village of Latchi with several shops and many seaside fish restaurants is about a five minute drive away. The property is situated in an enviable position with wonderful views overlooking Chrysochou Bay and the sparkling blue waters of the Mediterraneana...
